RACE 7 – 4:00PM LIGHT FINGERS STAKES GROUP 2 (1200M)

The good horses are well and truly back and some of Sydney's best 3yo fillies return here.

Think #12 DANCE TO THE BOOM tries to cross them from out wide with #9 LILAC and #1 LADY OF CAMELOT likely to roll to the top with the blinkers on for the first time.

This race looks to be dominated by those at the top of the market, with Golden Slipper winner #1 LADY OF CAMELOT the favourite. She gets the blinkers on for the first time here after disappointing in the Sunlight Plate last time out as favourite. She draws 4 and assuming she jumps cleanly, she will be the one they have to catch. She is clearly a super horse, winning a Golden Slipper and running 4th in an Everest and 3<sup>d</sup> in the Coolmore but not certain she has returned right up to that level.

#3 LADY SHENANDOAH went to the paddock after bolting in the G1 Flight Stakes over the mile in the Spring and if her trials are any guide, she has improved even further in the break and is in superb order. Her recent trial on 30/1 at Warwick Farm against a quality bunch of horses was as good as a horse can trial. She moved incredibly well, and we are very taken by the way she has returned. $3 currently available and we are keen to be on her side here. Hoping Zac Lloyd doesn't let her drift too far off the leaders from 8.

#2 MANAAL is another very good filly, winning the G1 Sires as a 2yo before a good 3yo spring preparation. Likely drifts back from gate 12 here with Collett engaged to ride but liked her recent trial and she is clearly talented enough to make her presence felt. Liked the trial of #12 DANCE TO THE BOOM vs Lady of Camelot and she is on an upwards spiral. Think she is the next best winning hope.

SELECTION:

#3 LADY SHENANDOAH (win)
