23/11/2024 KEMBLA

Race 9 - 5:20PM SNAP PRINT SOLUTIONS WOLLONGONG THE WARRA (1000 METRES)

Group 3 Sprint at Kembla over the 1000m. Speed good as you would expect. Tricky little race and not surprised if most of these win.

Siding with #7 IOWNA MERC. Really taken with his trial leading in, putting a space on his rivals, including BRUDENELL there. He is a nice horse and still think we are yet to see the best of him. He started $6 in a Group 3 field of 16 two back and favourite in a Listed June Stakes at Randwick prior. He's a winner at this track, yet to miss a place first-up and looks the horse to beat today.

No reason why HEADWALL can't win again. That was an impressive victory last time at this trip. Similar DRAGONSTONE. FLEETWOOD has really good form lines through Right To Party down the straight and beating Sneaky Paige last time. Trials have been good and he is a winning chance. Have him marked shorter than $7.50 and can save on him potentially. No issue with the way HEDGED trialled at Randwick over the short course. He was punched out a little but extended and won in nice fashion. His trial prior was sound also. Surprised to see him come up as favourite to be honest. He beat Cifrado and Golden Decade last time and couldn't beat Celui at Caulfield earlier this year. He's a winning chance but can't come into him as favourite today in this competitive race. FRILLED the best roughie for the quaddie.

SELECTION:
