Race 3 - 2:19PM WILD OATS CLASS 3 SHOWCASE HANDICAP (1100 METRES)

Class 3 over 1100m at Royal Mudgee. 6 may lead.

#7 NOMORENIGHTSHIFT is looking to make it three wins on end after two dynamic performances to kick off his racing career in the winter. He lines up here first-up over 1100m after one Scone trial and that trial was very impressive indeed. He went back as he tends to do, covering ground wide before charging down the middle under little pressure to win. The major concern here is that he lacks a little tactical speed and comes into barrier 3 after scratchings but it is only a field of 8 and he should be too good for these.

#4 WANDERING JACK has fitness on his side and is also going for the hat-trick. He looks the main danger. #6 NOT WRITTEN OFF is in the mix.

#7 NOMORENIGHTSHIFT (WIN)

Race 5 - 3:34PM OATLEY FINE WINE MERCHANTS SUPER MAIDEN SHOWCASE HANDICAP (1400 METRES)

Maiden over 1400m.

Loved the way #5 STORM PARK has gone in his two trials leading in and happy to be with him on debut today. This isn't a strong race, he comes from a good yard, draws well and looks the horse to beat. He had a soft time of it in his first trial at Scone, on his home track before travelling to Tamworth (which is a positive experience) and rattling home down the outside under minimal pressure. He was really strong through the line and looks to have the ability to be winning this on debut. 1400m looks a nice starting point for the son of Ocean Park.
