08/07/2024 ALBURY

Race 8 - 4:40PM ALBURY PLUMBING SERVICE CG&E BENCHMARK 58 HANDICAP (1175 METRES)

On a Soft 7 at Albury and we finish the day off with a BM58 over 1175m.

Not a lot of speed on paper. MIGHTY FEAT likely to lead from MAGIC MERV perhaps.

We're siding with #2 BANNOCKBURN here first up. His ratings in his four starts in Victoria have definitely been good enough to run a race here and we've like his work leading in. He ran third in a Wangaratta trial on June 3, showing decent speed and going to the line under little pressure to run third. He since had a jump-out at his home track of Wangaratta on the synthetic where he moved well into third. The market has come for him this morning and no surprise as we think he's the horse to beat here.

SELECTION:
