

THE TRIAL FILES

26/12/2024 BEAUMONT NEWCASTLE

Hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas and happy Boxing Day!

Race 7 - 5:45PM THE PRINCE OF MEREWETHER AFTER PARTY MIDWAY BENCHMARK 64 HANDICAP (1150 METRES)

Rail out 4m here on the Beaumont circuit. The day finishes with a BM64 over 1150m. Stewards maps have a solid speed generated from Dreams Of Thunder and Rush Hour. Titan Star draws wide and can add pressure.

We are hoping #5 SPICY HOTPOT is a late Christmas present for our Trial Files family. She is a mare with only 2 wins from 18 starts but she has been very consistent, particularly of late. She comes here on the back of two winning trials, covering ground at her home track at Wyong and winning in very good fashion, before romping away from Much Much Better here at Newcastle over 950m. Loved the fact she had the trip away in her latest trial. She has had a couple of weeks since her trial but she was scratched from a winnable race from a wide barrier prior to today. Tells us the stable think she is going well and looking to find the right race for her. She steps out from barrier 2 today, and looks to have been kept fresh enough for the 1150m today. Might need a little luck at the right time but if she gets it we are very confident she will be hard to beat. The $3+ looks good value in a very moderate race.

Not sure who the main danger is and that adds to the confidence. #4 DREAMS OF THUNDER won well first up and draws a good barrier. Up to this distance second up looks suitable. #6 ALL TOO LUCKY found the line very well last start, winning impressively, and is another suited by being up in distance. #7 SCHOLL DEEP and #1 RUSH HOUR have the ability to be in the mix.

SELECTION:

#5 SPICY HOTPOT (WIN)

Web: www.thetrialfiles.com.au

@the_trialfiles

@thetrialfiles

Disclaimer: The Trial Files is published for information purposes only. All care is taken in compiling information, however The Trial Files is not liable for errors.
Gamble Responsibly: 1800 858 858