29/3/2025 MORPHETTVILLE

RACE 7 – 4:27PM LISTED MATRICE STAKES (1200M)

Rail out 6m for the meeting at Morphettville today and good conditions. Every horse should get their chance, but monitor the earlier races.

Loved the recent trial from #4 AVIATRESS. She always trials well but her trial leading into this was the best of her career, and the one that has shown the most intent. She was given a good hit out to win by a space and we think she has come back really well. She is a classy mare, having won at Group level last preparation, and she looks to be here to win this based on how she trialled. Should get a nice run from barrier 1 and with even luck she is the clear top pick.

#3 SIR SWAY is just a winner and his return win in the Manihi was good. The draw is a little sticky in 9 here with pace drawn underneath him, but he has to be a winning chance with even luck. #10 MAKIN is an interesting runner, presenting first up from Singapore. He had form in the better races over there and we have seen this stable win races with their Singapore imports recently. The recent trial was good and $17 looks a big price given the quality he appears to possess.

#6 CHICAGO STORM has trialled very well for this first up run and draws nicely in 6 to be able to find a run near the speed. His better form was over the mile last time in but he is a very capable fresh/1200m horse and looks a big danger.

SELECTION:
