

THE TRIAL FILES

17/04/2025 KILMORE

RACE 6 – 4:30PM MC LABOUR FILLIES & MARES BM58 (1100M)

Competitive race for a BM58 with many chances, but we are looking at one that the market doesn't fancy here.

#7 LADY LOTI is having her first start for the Cameron yard and the two trials for the new camp have been much better than her price suggests. She jumped straight to the lead in her first jump out and went on to win under a hold, with Santa Ana Moon in behind her who came out and won at Sandown at a short quote on 9/4. Her 2nd jump out was good also, settling on speed and crossing the line with Brandjam, who has strong form lines through his first prep. There is no doubt this horse has improved significantly, and she is being priced up off her race form, not her trials. She is no world beater and there would be no surprise to see her beaten, but we want to have something on at the huge price ($71).

SELECTION:

#7 LADY LOTI (each way)

Web: www.thetrialfiles.com.au

@the_trialfiles

@thetrialfiles

Disclaimer: The Trial Files is published for information purposes only. All care is taken in compiling information, however The Trial Files is not liable for errors.
Gamble Responsibly: 1800 858 858

