Race 3 - 2:25PM HEALING HEROES PROVINCIAL MAIDEN PLATE (1100 METRES)

Set Weights Maiden over 1100m on a Good Hawkesbury surface. Seven debutants here and we're with one of them in #10 EMERY from the Sara Ryan camp. Loved what this filly did in her first trial, finding the line under no pressure at Wyong and getting her nose down on the line to score. She then had a trip and a day out to Canterbury, where she settled worse than midfield again in her trial before making similarly good ground, this time under more riding. Like the fact she had that trip away from home and was ridden with more intent at her second outing. Drawn well today, Bayliss stays with her and happy to have her on top.

Race 6 - 4:20PM THE LAWN SHED SUPER MAIDEN HANDICAP (1000 METRES)

Another maiden, this time over 1000m. Again, we're faced with quite a few debutants.

Think the winner will come from #9 CIRCLE OF LOVE, #2 BENZOU and #6 RAINBOW GODDESS.

#9 CIRCLE OF LOVE showed speed and professionalism in winning her Warwick Farm trial leading in and looks a major player. #2 BENZOU is the other debutant that caught the eye at the trials, putting in a nice piece of work at Doomben when not having a lot of room in behind them. Thought he was solid there and he can run a good race on debut. Of the other debutants, #3 GORBACHEV was okay down the outside in his recent Randwick trial. #4 MOKELAKE similar, okay into third at Rosehill. #8 ANTICIPATION improved at her last trial and looks ready to make her debut.

The danger to #9 CIRCLE OF LOVE and #2 BENZOU is the mare #6 RAINBOW GODDESS. Race experience and two winning trials. She's looked good in her work leading into her second campaign and she looks to have improved.

SELECTION:

No official play but tipping 9,2,6 if keen to bet.

Race 8 - 5:30PM LANDER TOYOTA CG&E BENCHMARK 64 HANDICAP (1100 METRES)

Good race to finish off here at Hawkesbury. A couple of last start winners and horses coming into this in good form but we're with the Godolphin runner #4 MELLIFLUENT who ran 6th when we last saw him. He is an interesting 3YO who won well on debut at Canterbury before the one run at Caulfield in his second campaign before being put away. Like the fact he got sent to the paddock after that plain run and he returns here on the back of two solid trials, and an important gelding operation which looks to have made an impact. He's trialled nicely leading in, his latest, a Warwick Farm synthetic trial against 5 stablemates and one other. He wore the black cap along the inside and had a soft trial, finishing last but thought he was fine through the line. Think he can make a winning return to the races today.
