

THE TRIAL FILES

14/12/2024 NEWCASTLE

Another great day yesterday with Winston Hills dominating in the last at Canterbury. Very nice horse and if he keeps fit he will work through his grades.

Race 2 - 2:35PM TOOHEYS CLASS 1 & MAIDEN PLATE (1850 METRES)

Class 1 over 1850m. Not usually our go here at The Trial Files but we think we have found one that trialed smartly in behind last nights tip Winston Hills.

#1 AKKADIAN EMPEROR is the horse. He is staying type resuming and comes into this on the back of that trial at Canterbury. He may have been hard to find from that trial, running 5th but loved what he did between runners late and through the line. For a stayer, the trial was great, and this looks a likable race for him first-up. Small field should have him close and love the fact he is having his second campaign here in Australia.

#7 ROSE'S LEGACY looks our leader with AKKADIAN EMPEROR likely to camp close, just in behind while fresh.

SELECTION:
